

Personnel - Certificated Employees

Assignment of Duties

The Superintendent shall have the authority to assign and reassign all principals, teachers, and other staff to extracurricular activities and other specific activities, including supervision of pupils in halls, study halls, playgrounds, work on faculty committees and staff activities, and other duties necessary for the operation of the school. The building principal shall have the authority to assign specific responsibilities and duties necessary in their buildings.

Date of Adoption: 1978
Amended: March 14, 2005